

Below is a Prayer to Guide You Weekly as You Intercede for the Victims of Modern-Day Slavery (human trafficking):

God of hope, strength, and salvation,
though young women and men in Indianapolis
and cities around the world
are surrounded by troubles,
I'm praying that You will protect them
from their enemies.
Through Liz, her team, and many other
bold and courageous Christians around the world,
reach out and allow the power of Your hand to save.
You, Lord, give power to the weak
and strength to the powerless.
Just as Jesus came to seek and save those who are lost, work through churches and ministries to seek and save the lost.
Rescue the poor and helpless here in Indy
and around the world.
Deliver them from the grasp of evil people.
Stir our hearts to provide justice to the oppressed
and food to the hungry.
Free the prisoners, heal their physical, mental,
and emotional wounds,
and restore their health according to Your will.

Lord, turn to those who patiently cry to You for help.
Hear their prayers, God.
Lift them out of the pit of despair
to set their feet on solid ground
as you lead them towards restoration.
Give them a new song to sing,
a hymn of praise to You, our Savior.
Let many see what You are doing and be amazed.
May those who see put their trust in You.
In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

Prayer based on Ps. 138:7, Is. 40:29, Lk. 19:10,
Ps. 82:4, Ps. 103:6, Ps. 146:7, Ps. 40:1-3,
Jer. 30:17, and Jer. 31:17.
