

End-of-Life PLANNING SEMINAR

A SPECIAL INVITATION TO YOU:

Dear Friends,

Back — by popular demand — a second End-of-Life Planning Seminar will take place Saturday, Oct. 5, 9 a.m. to noon at Avon United Methodist Church.

This seminar will give participants the tools to answer important questions most of us don't want to think about:

- Do you have an estate plan and your affairs in order?
- Do the elderly parents or family members for whom you may provide care have their affairs in order?

Through brief but informative sessions, experts will help guide you in how to write your will, arrange your funeral, and plan your Celebration-of-Life service. As part of the program, Pastor Danny will be sharing his thoughts on conducting a celebration of life. Attendees will leave with valuable information to consider and a Celebration-of-Life decision template — all at no cost.

Planning ahead for that inevitable day will give both you and your family peace of mind.

As with last fall's well-attended seminar, this year's is being sponsored by the Avon United Methodist Church's Endowment Fund committee.

Refreshments will be provided. Please invite friends and others to join us, too.

If you plan to attend the Oct. 5 seminar, please register by emailing or calling Melissa Lidgard, at mlidgard@avonumc.com or 317-272-4068.

Yours in Christ,
The AUMC Endowment Fund Committee
