To the dear members of Avon UMC.

I cannot adequately express my gratefulness for the outpouring of love and support during my sweet husband Don's health issues. I find great peace in knowing that Avon UMC was so instrumental in strengthening Don's faith this last year before he passed away peacefully on the evening of July 6th.

Sincerely, Marilyn Templeton

Please give my thanks and many blessings to everyone who sent birthday greetings to me on my 87th birthday!

Elsa Jones

Jill McCracken would like to thank everyone for the prayers, flowers, cards, calls, and visits during her recovery. The prayers worked!

AUMC to Launch "Alternative Christmas Gifts Catalog"

Ever wish you could give Christmas gifts that really honor the One whose birthday we celebrate? Well, starting next month you can do just that, as AUMC rolls out its first-ever "Alternative Christmas Gifts Catalog". In it you'll find brief descriptions of some of the mission projects our church supports. Just choose one (or more), make a donation through the church in the name of the person(s) you want to honor, and that person will receive a beautiful certificate stating, "In your honor a gift has been made to [name of mission]." What a great way to give in the true spirit of Christmas! Look for more details in next month's newsletter.

A friend loves at all times. Proverbs 1

Circle of Friends is GROWING! We have had a new record of Friends attending. 32! I am so happy to see the growth of our group. We are appreciative of the support the church family gives us and ask for continued prayers as we navigate this new bigger and awesome group.

Circle of Friends will meet September 24th at 4:00 pm in Fellowship Hall for our Serving September meeting. We will be collecting food items for a local food pantry and will be playing BINGO.

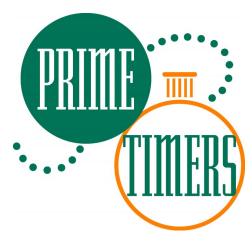

More Than a Book Club will meet on September 18th, 6:15 pm at the church to discuss The Paris Key by Juliet Blackwell. Copies of this book are on loan from Indiana Humanities Novel Conversations program and are available while they last. We will also be considering our reading selections for next year at the September meeting.

After her marriage crumbles and Genevieve is faced with an incredible opportunity to return to the magical city of her youth and take over her uncles' shop, she realizes Paris never really left her. The Paris Key is an emotionally evocative novel of a women in Paris determined to unlock her family secrets and secret past. As she absorbs all that Paris has to offer, she realizes the revelations she uncovers about her family could change her forever.

This story is a fast read that will quickly draw you into its plot and descriptions of the City of Light. For more information, contact Jane DuMond at bjdumond@sbcglobal.net.

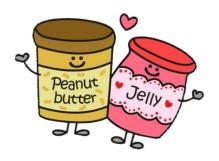

Tuesday, September 12th Beef House Leaving at 11:00 am

The Prime Timers will be going to the Beef House Restaurant in Covington, IN on Tuesday, September 12th. Leaving the church at 11:00 am. Please RSVP to Janell Miller at 317-506-0758.

We are the "PBJ, Peanut Butter & Jelly Church"

Fletcher Place Community Center is a nonprofit that is near and dear to a lot of us at Avon UMC. Peanut butter and jelly is always needed, it is placed in their food pantry, "The Elaine", located in the Fountain Square area of Indianapolis. This is an area that is a food desert, so the free food pantry serves many families below poverty and those families struggling at this time. They also provide a free thrift store for clothes, household items, and other goods.

FPCC celebrated their 150th anniversary in 2022! They have been firmly supported by Avon UMC in our tradition, through PBJ and other services. One other way we help is providing underwear for children at Christmas time. We collect now until "Hanging of the Green" when the packages are assembled. So please remember this during the Christmas season. We've helped over 350 children each season through this donation. A bin will be placed near the Sanctuary and Chapel soon. (Underwear, 2T to adult Large are needed, both genders, males like boxers.)

You may help through donating items, attending the 150th Celebration, monetary donations (as they are a self-funding mission) or by being the hands and feet of Jesus with hands on volunteering. And of course, prayer! For more information on their mission or opportunities to serve, join their Facebook page, visit their website at fletcherplacecc.org, or ask Suzanne Conger at onox56@hotmail.com for opportunities.

From the Health Ministry Team...

LaToya was in an abusive relationship. She was told time and time again that there wasn't a place for her to go and be safe. LaToya was scared, trapped, and felt like she had nowhere to go. Until she called Sheltering Wings and finally heard the words she had been longing to hear: "We have a place for you."

Sheltering Wings is a domestic violence shelter in Danville that was formed in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ. They serve anyone fleeing domestic abuse. Sheltering Wings provides emergency housing and supportive services with the goal of ending domestic violence and empowering survivors to live stable, independent lives free from abuse.

Once at Sheltering Wings survivors, like LaToya, work with a case manager to assess their situation and create a plan for the future. Whether it be leaving an abusive marriage, getting a driver's license, finding a safe place to live, or a number of other goals, the case manager will partner with the survivor to tirelessly work toward safety.

Survivors like Adrianna have found healing, freedom, and safety through Sheltering Wings. Facing physical, financial, and emotional abuse, Adrianna bravely fought for her safety, working each day to provide a better life for herself and her three children. Then, working with her case manager, Adrianna and her children are now living in their own apartment. They don't have to worry about whether they'll be allowed to eat. Or if the abuser will come home in a fit of rage. Now, Adrianna is proudly showing her children that they deserve love, respect, and independence.

Sheltering Wings also works to create a safer community for everyone. They offer free training for churches, schools, and businesses so that people know how to respond when someone tells them they're being abused. They go into local middle schools and high schools to talk about healthy dating relationships. Sheltering Wings also distributes this life-saving information and resources through events and booths in the community.

Most of all, Sheltering Wings is working to end domestic violence.

And you can help. Contact Sheltering Wings or visit their website, www.shelteringwings.org, to learn more.

Directions: Use the code to fill in the blanks and complete a Bible passage about prayer.

Answer: I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy. Philippians 1:3-4, NIV

"Life is for service."

- Fred Rogers

Godly, biblical wisdom is more valuable than gold or silver. Make this do-it-yourself toy to practice your searching skills.

What you need:

- 12 small, smooth rocks
- An empty, clean egg carton
- Paintbrush
- Acrylic paint (gold or silver)
- Black permanent marker

What you do:

- 1. Clean the rocks and egg carton. Place newspaper on a table to protect it from paint.
- 2. Paint all sides of the rocks and carton. Let dry. Add a second coat, if desired.
- 3. When rocks are dry, number each rock (1-12) with marker. Place rocks in the carton.
- 4. Play hide-and-seek with a friend. Take turns hiding the rocks in a room, sandbox or backyard. Give clues, if needed, and count the rocks as they're returned.
- 5. Use your imagination to incorporate a treasure hunt into study time or family devotions.
