The Stephen Ministry of Avon UMC is offering a bereaved Mother's Day service in the AUMC chapel with guest speaker Debbie Alexander on May 4th at 2:30 pm. It is the Sunday before Mother's Day. It will be a time of remembrance for mothers, fathers, grandparents, family, and friends grieving the loss of a child of any age, including one that was unborn. The service will remind attendees of God's presence in the midst of ongoing grief.

THE FLAME

What a wonderful turnout for the workday. Thanks to everyone that came out to help. We spread 43 yards of mulch.

We also had a team in the Fellowship Hall kitchen making up about 150 to-go-meals to take to Roberts Park as well as preparing many donated casseroles, etc.

All in all it was a very successful workday at AUMC! Again, thanks to all for braving the sprinkles. And a BIG THANK YOU to Dave Imler for coordinating work areas and mulch and to Steve DeWeese for bringing in his tractor!

The church grounds and the Play-N-Share playground look wonderful.

Thanks Again!

Dear Avon UMC Family,

Thank you so much for the many cards, texts, calls, prayers and food during my knee replacement surgery and recovery. I was absolutely overwhelmed with the love, care and concerns you expressed to me. It made the process just a little easier.

Bill definitely appreciated the food and the break from fixing our meals now and then.

From the Health Ministry Team...

A different aspect of stewardship from Jill Savage, daughter of Patsy Fleener. Her weekly thoughts are a joy to read.

Sonia Barnes, Health Ministry Team

The word stewardship is often associated with money, but today I want you to consider how you're stewarding -- taking care of -- the body God has given you.

This week I found these statistics from Dr. Mark Hyman so interesting:

After seeing that I thought, "Wow, isn't that like God to make our bodies so responsive to something as simple as walking?" You don't have to join a gym. You don't have to have special workout clothes. Your mind and body will respond in a variety of ways to any amount of walking!

The Bible tells us in I Corinthians 6: 19a, 20b: Remember this: Your body is the home of God's Holy Spirit. God gave his Holy Spirit to you and he lives in you...so use your body to show how great God is.

If you can, get some steps in. It's an easy way to take care of the body God has given us.

Turban Cutting Workshop

The 2nd turban cutting workshop for 2025 will be on May 20th from 5:00 - 7:45 pm with set up starting at 4:00 pm. We have many bright fabrics for spring and summer waiting to be transformed into our cute cancer turbans. Have you seen someone wearing them or perhaps you have a close friend or relative who has benefited from them? Have you ever wondered how the process works? They are truly a labor of love by our church with many steps required to make the finished product. First thing needed is the funds to purchase fabric done by a dedicated volunteer. Funds come from church accounts and donations of money or fabric. Then a workshop is scheduled quarterly to cut the fabrics. Next, our volunteer sewers take the cut turbans home and sew them. Some of the sewers aren't even members of our church but they want to be a part of this mission. Sewers return the finished turbans then they are counted and sorted. Next volunteers label them with stickers letting the recipients know they are gifts from Avon UMC. Finally, they are separated into bags of 50 then more volunteers deliver them to the hospital and clinic sites where they are given out freely! Whew, that took time and effort, but what a special gift from our church family!

We can't get the process going without a lot of helpers. No experience necessary. Bring your own scissors or use ones provided. Come as you can and stay as long as you can. For more information, contact Jane DuMond at bjdumond@sbcglobal.net.

Are you new to AUMC? Have you been attending for a while and feeling ready to seek new connections? If so, please consider joining a three session gathering called "Simple Group." All are welcome! We will focus on three simple questions: "Who Am I?"..."Who Is God?"..."Who Are We Together?" Simple Group will meet in Room 110 for an hour on Sundays from 11:15 am - 12:15 pm after the 10:00 worship service. Meeting dates are May 4th, May 18th, and June 1st. If planning to attend, please contact Donna Curtis at dsuecurtis@gmail.com to assist with the preparation of materials.

The guest speaker for the United Women in Faith spring tea will be Rev. Meredith McNabb, Associate Superintendent of the Central District of INUMC.

Meredith McNabb is an ordained elder in the Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church, where she served as the Director of the Center for Clergy Excellence from 2014-2019 before moving to Indianapolis to serve in extension ministry at the Lake Institute on Faith & Giving, part of the IU-Lilly Family School of Philanthropy. In her early career, Meredith was an attorney, working primarily with low-income victims of domestic violence and on end-of-life planning in rural parts of Virginia. That work led her to answer her call to ministry, working to point out God's transformative hope and grace in the world. Meredith is completing her internship as a spiritual director with the Benedictine sisters in Beech Grove, and she and her spouse, Mike Davis, live in Indianapolis with their elderly terrier, Murphy.

More Than a Book Club will meet on Monday, May 19th in the Gathering Space at 6:15 pm to discuss The Berry Pickers by Amanda Peters.

"A stunning debut about love, race, brutality, and the balm of forgiveness." — People, A Best New Book

July 1962. A Mi'kmaq family from Nova Scotia arrives in Maine to pick blueberries for the summer. Weeks later, four-year-old Ruthie, the family's youngest child, vanishes. She is last seen by her six-year-old brother, Joe, sitting on a favorite rock at the edge of a berry field. Joe will remain distraught by his sister's disappearance for years to come.

In Maine, a young girl named Norma grows up as the only child of an affluent family. Her father is emotionally distant, her mother frustratingly overprotective. Norma is often troubled by recurring dreams and visions that seem more like memories than imagination. As she grows older, Norma slowly comes to realize there is something her parents aren't telling her. Unwilling to abandon her intuition, she will spend decades trying to uncover this family secret.

Come join us for our discussion of this intense and deeply emotional novel. For more information, contact Jane DuMond at: bjdumond@sbcglobal.net.

Reflecting on Resurrection

In Rest Your Dreams on a Little Twig, poet Joyce Rupp finds in spring flowers the proclamation of the gospel: "we who have died / are alive today." In another poem in the same volume, she writes: "A green shoot grows / out of an old tree stump, / announcing to the world / that power lies within death."

As you move about outdoors these springtime days in the northern hemisphere, where do you see nature testifying to resurrection? Where is evidence that what seemed dead — bare branches, dry grass, inactive seeds — was not in fact the final word? What encourages you to believe in renewal, second chances, life that blossoms from death? In what ways are you, who had died, alive today? Part of your life that felt like an old stump might be sprouting green shoots after all!
